This morning the game season opened for ducks and there was quite a bombardment in the early hours. So far we have seen only a few ducks by backland, some strung on the gun barrel, but of course there were some covered up in the bottom of the buggy box. The boys say that shooting is good. But they are a nice, modest bunch of boys and will never take more than they can carry off.

KING OF THE NASHWAAK

RISE AND FALL OF ALEX. GIBSON
OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

At Age of Ninety-Two Years Great Captain of Industry Sees His Properties Sold to Pay the Mortgage—Made a Fortune in Lumber on the Shores of Fundy and Built Great Cotton Mills.

According to New Brunswick papers, the property of the Gibson Railway & Lumber Co., at Gibson and other points in the province, is to be sold to satisfy mortgages aggregating half a million dollars. Full description of the property will soon be advertised, and of such variety are the holdings and so numerous the items that it is said the advertisement will fill twenty-eight columns of a newspaper. With this sale will depart from the hands of the veteran Alexander Gibson, the last of the great estate which he assembled and at least nominally directed during a longer working life than is granted to ninety-nine men in a hundred.

The majority of the people of New Brunswick may be described as lumbermen, but they are nearly always lumbermen first of all.

The spruce log has been the mainstay of the province for half a century, as the pine log previously was, and among the men who have reaped the forest reserves of New Brunswick down to the dangerpoint, Alexander Gibson is easily first.

He was the big toad in the comparatively small pond, even if it be sooth on the ocean, having regard to the extent of his field of operations. Indeed hardly so large as Alexander Gibson, along the St. John River. To use a phrase coined and current in New Brunswick, and not unknown elsewhere, derived from the fact of another large lumber operator, who preceded him, he was for a generation "the main John Gibson" of his province.

Born in the last year of the reign of George III, it was little past the middle of the century when Mr. Gibson had made a fortune as a lumber operator on the shores of the Bay of Fundy. In those days there is said to have been a cranny about his book-keeping. Whether he kept any books at all or not it was noticed that he usually tore up his receipts. But he was young and vigorous, and there was a large margin of profit in lumber, and therefore no prospect. When the timber along the bay shore had been pretty well cut or burned away about the end of the United States civil war, he moved 100 miles up the St. John River. There, opposite Fredericton, where the Nashwaak joins the main stream, Alexander Gibson built and a lumber mill, then a church, then the town of Mayville. He became the "King of the Nashwaak." His lumber operations exceeded those of any single operator in that part of the world either before or since. There have been times when he cut more logs, sawed more feet of plank or board, or shipped more wood products abroad than Mr. Gibson did the whole business himself.

His men felled his trees on his timber limits, his steam drags brought the logs to his mill, he himself owned the tugs and saws that rafted the saw product to the sea coast. He entered the steamships that freighted it to the European market. When he acquired timber limits remote from accessible streams, he built a saw mill in the woods, and also 200 miles of railway from the Nashwaak to the Gulf of St. Lawrence to land the output of these at the nearest waterway.

Thirty years ago he built one of the largest cotton mills in Canada, at Marvillville. He ruled his town with an iron hand. It was well for everyone to go to his Methodist church; it was certainly bad for anyone to be seen the worse for liquor. In politics he took a keen, though intermittent interest. Though his county (York) was a very large Orange vote, Mr. Gibson carried George E. Foster in 1891 by a 1,000 majority, in spite of Foster's leadership for the republican bill. Four years later Foster had to get a constituency elsewhere. It was under Mr. Gibson's eye that the mill, then a railway, and Mr. Foster had no longer any use to him. Under ordinary conditions York has always been rather even fighting ground, but when Mr. Gibson saw fit to go into the contest his candidate was always a strong favorite. At each time of the 400 electors in Marvillville, about 375 usually voted his way.

Several years ago he sold his railroad, and it is now part of the Intercolonial; soon after it "was built his cotton mill went into the combine and not long afterwards all his property went into the hands of trustees. Indeed the forthcoming sale is a logical event in the sequence of his later life. In his last decade or two success forsook him. Perhaps a system suited to the conduct of larger affairs didn't naturally evolve from his early methods of doing business. Perhaps age didn't bring with it increased sagacity. Now, in his ninety-second year, this lumber king, cotton spinner, railroad, and local dictator, is left with nothing but the consolation that he did great things in his day and generation.

Joe's Empty Sleeve.
"I didn't know Mr. Downey had only one arm," has been a frequent exclamation among those who have met the new superintendent of the asylum for the first time during the past fortnight. The enquirers will be glad to know that when Mr. Downey's right arm recovers from a sprain received in a recent fall he will place it in his coat sleeve again, and will have two arms once more—Orilla Packet.

An Old New York Gave.
The oldest grave in Trinity churchyard, New York city, so far as can be determined, is that of Richard Churcher. The stone on the grave indicates that the boy died at the age of five and a half years, April 5, 1801.

Bleaching Ivory.
Ivory may be new-bled by placing it in a glass dish filled with turpentine and exposing it for two or three days to the sunlight.

His First Elevator

Walter Duntroch was describing a very ignorant foreign critic. "In short," Mr. Duntroch ended, "he was as ignorant of music as old Joe Shucks and his wife were of city ways."

"He was describing, at a dinner, his recent visit to New York."

"And we went to a big department shop, he said, 'an' we got inter one of them' ere things 'unt whizzes 'e clean up to the top—'unt in 'arfation is their name, Ma'?"

"Shoplifters," declared Mrs. Shucks, firmly.

The Chagrin of Mother Grace. When Extremism puts it within reach of all, and it can be got at any distance.

Willis—"I wonder if there will ever be a universal peace." Gillis—"Sure, all they've got to do is to get the nations to agree that in case of war the winner pays the pensions!"—Puck.

The flies that are now in your kitchen and dining-room were probably feeding on some indescribable nastiness less than an hour ago, and as a single fly often carries many thousands of disease germs attached to its hairy body, it is the duty of every housekeeper to assist in exterminating this worst enemy of the human race. Wilson's Fly Pads kill flies in such immense quantities as cannot be approached by any other fly killer.

Ordinary white chalk such as is used in the school room for blackboard work is invaluable as a household remedy for removing spots from white clothes and shoes.

Minard's Liniment cures garget in cows

Wine stains on table linen are removed by sprinkling them with salt, moistening with hot water and then pouring water through the stain until it disappears.

Through indigestion in eating green fruit in summer many children become subject to cholera morbus caused by irritating acids that act violently on the lining of the intestines. Pain and dangerous purging ensue, and the delicate system of the child suffers under the strain. In such cases the safest and surest medicine is Dr. J. B. Keillogg's Dysentery Remedy, which cures the inflammation and saves the child's life.

"Quite a remarkable thing happened at the banquet last night."

Did somebody tell a story that was new?"

"No, the stories were all old, but one of the speakers who said he had to say 'at' down immediately after saying it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Necklace Fancies

One of the latest fancies in necklaces is the use of seed pearls of different colors to our grandmothers. The lucky girl who has such a treasure stored away in her box is bound to send it to the jeweler for cleaning.

Many of these beaded pearl collars are in use in Indian states both for ceremony and real-looking as to prove very popular especially with summer frocks.

The doctor stood by the bedside and looked gravely down at the sick man. "I cannot hide from you the fact that you are very sick," he said. "Is there anyone you would like to see?"

"Yes," said the sufferer faintly.

"What is it?"

"Another doctor,"—Judge.

SEVEN YEARS PAIN
FROM ACUTE NEURALGIA

CURED THROUGH THE USE OF
DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS

Neuralgia is not a disease—it is only a symptom. It is the surest sign that your blood is weak, watery and impure, and that your nerves are literally starving. Bad blood is the one cause—good, rich, red blood is its only cure. There has been the real reason why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure neuralgia. They are the only medicine that contains, in correct proportions, the very elements needed to make new, rich, red blood.

This also reaches the root of the trouble, soothes the jagged nerves, and drives away the nagging, stinging pain, and braces up your health in other ways. Mr. M. Bennett, an ex-sergeant of the 2nd Cheshire Regiment, now a resident of Winnipeg, Man., says: "While serving with my regiment in India, on a hill station, I contracted a severe cold which brought on acute neuralgia, at times lasting for three weeks. I was constantly suffering almost every month in other ways. Mr. M. A Noble Vocation

Let every farmer appreciate the fact that agricultur is the mainspring which keeps the whole business world in motion. Withdraw from the marts of the earth the food supply furnished by the tiller of the soil and the wheels of commerce and manufacturing would cease to move. Even banking houses would close their doors. Millions of people would languish and die of starvation. In a very short time leaves, grass and the raw skins of wild animals would be the only available clothing.

The time has arrived—in fact, has been here for some time—when our farmers and their sons must take more interest and pride in their work. Many of them seem to consider farming as a low, degraded vocation, whereas it is the loftiest in all the universe—the very channel through which man obeys the divine and long-ago decree: "By the sweat of thy brow shalt thou earn bread."

Quite naturally this depreciative view of his occupation has a deteriorating effect on the farmer. Often he thinks that, since he is of so little consequence, it is useless for him to strive for a higher plane or for greater influence socially or politically. All unconsciously he trains his children up to take the same view of the matter, which causes many of them to seek what they consider a more honorable and influential position in the glare of the great city. What a pity that our rising generation of farm boys and girls are not taught that the farmer owes allegiance to none—that he really is as noble and independent as a king on his throne.—The Homestead.

More Power to Him

When railroads were first introduced scores of pessimists were loud in their prophesies of coming calamity. The puffing locomotives, said they, would stop cows giving milk, and hens from laying eggs. And what, pray, would become of man's best friend from the dawn of history, that noble animal the horse?

Those prophets are all gone, but the milk cows and laying hens remain, and what is more, they produce more now than they did then. And there are more horses now that railroads abound than there were in those days.

Since then the automobile has invaded the streets in thousands, as everyone knows. It has come to stay, but has it driven out the horse?

In one or two quarters it is a successful competitor. For long distance heavy draft work the automobile is now in demand, but for light draft work the horse is almost as quick and cheaper. In all farm work the draft horse reigns alone, and everyone knows in what demand he is in the northwest. No one need to hesitate to breed from his Percheron or his Clydesdale mare for fear of the automobile decreasing the demand or the price.

In one department the automobile has come to the front—the call horse is hard pressed by the taxicab in cities, and likely to be altogether ousted. The same is the case with the private carriage horse to some extent, and the omnibus horse in many large cities. But where dispay and individuality are the aim, horses are supreme, and many a rich man and society dame, who discarded horses in favor of automobiles when the latter were less common, have returned to their old love in recent years, and stocked their equine stables once more.
The sportsman, too, in all branches of sport where horses are of use, hunting, racing, and the like, laughs to scorn any suggestion of abandoning the horse.

No, we can venture on a safer prophesy: It'll be many a long year yet before we shall see our old friend the horse confined to the museums.—The Homestead.

That Bald Spot

Don't let that bald spot grow!
Go to your drugget at once and get a bottle of Parisian Sage and if that don't check the falling hair, and cause new hair to grow, nothing will.

Dandruff is the cause of baldness; dandruff germs cause dandruff. Parisian Sage kills the germs, eradicates dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp. We will refund your money if it fails to do this in two weeks. Parisian Sage will cause the hair to grow, if the hair root be not dead. It causes the hair to grow thicker, more luxuriant, and puts new life into it.

The girl with the autumn hair is on every package of Parisian Sage. It is sold for 50c by all druggists or sent postpaid by the Gibbs Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont., on receipt

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR

FOR

Western Canada College, Calgary

This well known Resident and Day College for Boys has just closed another very successful year. The attendance has steadily increased and the total registration for the year is 150 boys between the ages of 10 and 20. Many of these students have written the June matriculation examinations for Alberta and McGill Universities. The results of the McGill examinations just received are very gratifying, one lad taking 6th place in all Canada in a large field of candidates. The results of the examinations for the Royal Military College held for Western Canada College have just been issued, and a Western Canada College boy has taken the highest marks in Western Canada. During the year the staff was increased. The most important addition, however, has been in the Gymnasium. This building has been fitted up in the latest and best manner under the care of an expert. A special instructor from Cambridge University, England, has been engaged. His whole time is given to the training and instruction of the boys.

The First Annual Gymnastic Exhibition or Assault at Arms was a great surprise to parents and friends. The College continues its success in sending its boys to the Universities and into the various leading business houses. The College authorities are making preparations to sell the present property and move to the new College premises. It will take some time, of course, to find plans and erect buildings on the new property of thirty five acres, but no expense will be spared to get the most improved, the best equipped and most sanitary buildings both for Residence and Class Room requirements. The College will need all these improvements, for it is the oldest, the largest and the best known College of its kind in Canada west of the lakes. It was founded before Alberta and Saskatchewan became Provinces, and its record of success in preparing lads for College and Business is amply testified by the high places taken, the scholarships won, and the testimonials received.

Attended by Chamberlain's Salve. One application relieves the itching and burning sensation.

New Travel Record

A new record for ocean travel, or for that matter for travel of any kind so far as human beings are concerned, has just been made by the pursuer of one of the trans-Atlantic liners plying regularly between Montreal and Europe, who has just completed his thousandth trip across the Atlantic. These thousand trips represent about 3,500,000 miles of travel, far surpassing any other achievement of the sort of which any record can be found. The thousand trips are equal to 140 trips around the earth or fifteen to the moon. Of course not all these trips were made on the same vessel, nor was their accomplishment a quick one, since the pursuer in question has been traveling the Atlantic since 1864 or for nearly half a century. His first trip was of a nature to discourage any but the most enthusiastic lover of the sea, since it was made on a steamship which took fire on its way to this country and was only saved after its hope had been abandoned. Altogether it is likely that it will be long before this 3,500,000 mile record will be beaten, even with the greatly increased speed of the present day liners.

Labor Day at Sunnyslope

No Wonder

Two little boys walking down a street one day were overheard to say: First Boy—I wonder why horses are so afraid of automobiles? Second Boy—I see nothing strange in it. I am sure if we saw a pair of pants walking down the street without a man in them, we would be scared.

A well known Des Moines woman, after suffering miserably for two days from bowel complaint, was cured by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by dealers everywhere.

Neapolis Notes

Mrs. Frank Reek is slowly improving from her severe illness of several weeks.

Mr. Phil Ward is erecting a substantial new residence on his newly purchased farm south of Neapolis. We welcome these worthy people to our community.

Mrs. Guy Oldham accompanied her father, Mr. Metcalf, to Penhold for a two week's visit.

A farewell party was given by the "Helping Hands class" in honor of Boyce Witte on Friday evening at their teacher's, Miss Alice Stuart. A fine Bible was presented to him as a token of remembrance.

Quite a number of tiny tots were gathered at the Pearson home to help the twins celebrate their fourth birthday anniversary.

NEAPOLIS W. C. T. U. NOTES
The next regular meeting of Neapolis W. C. T. U. will be held at the usual hour on Thursday, Aug 24, at the home of Mrs. Shields.

Perhaps it will be of interest to our readers to know that the local option petition in the three districts east of Didsbury was signed by over 75 per cent. of the voters. This is indeed very encouraging to temperance workers.

WHY THE SALOON SHOULD LIVE

The Gideon answers:

1. Because of its moral uplift in the community (?)
 2. Because of its purifying effect on politics (?)
 3. Because its patrons get so much value for their money (?)
 4. Because it is such a law-abiding institution (?)
 5. Because drinking helps one to get a good job and keep it (?)
 6. Because it makes business—for the courts and county agents (?)
 7. Because drunkards—the saloon's finished product—make such good husbands and loving fathers (?)
 8. Because saloons always make cities safer and better places, for boys and girls to grow up in (?)
 9. Because all right minded fathers and mothers pray that their boys may become saloon keepers (?)
- There will be a temperance lecture soon at the Neapolis school house by Rev. Beane with chart and illustrations which will be of interest to everybody. Watch for announce-ments.

Biggest Cheese in World

A dispatch from Appleton, Wis., says: The preliminary work on the construction of a six ton cheese will start here Wednesday, and everything will be ready for the actual construction of the mammoth cheese within ten days or two weeks.

It is probable that James Wilson, United States secretary of agriculture, will come to Appleton to witness the construction of the largest cheese ever built in the world. The federal government has taken so much interest in the gigantic undertaking that it has contracted for 30,000 photographs, showing the work of making the cheese. The cheese will be sent to the National Dairy show, Chicago.

Grain Raising Experiences By A. E. R.

How to Run a Binder in Soft Ground—Don't start in the morning until real dry; keep your machine well oiled; have your platform two inches higher in front than in the rear; don't cut too close to ground. Have your canvas and chains as loose as possible, just so they don't slip. Make small bundles and don't tie too tight, and don't drive too slow. If you make big bundles and tie tight the big wheel don't have grip enough to throw the bundle out.

How to Grow Ripe Tomatoes in This Country—Dig a hole about ten feet square by three feet deep. Throw the top soil out on one side and the subsoil out on the other three sides. Dig another foot of soil up but leave it loose in hole. Now get the top soil back in hole again. That leaves the hole two feet deep, which is now ready for planting. They will grow twice as fast in there as they will on the surface. If they shouldn't be ripe by the 1st of September, put poles over the hole fifteen inches apart and put six inches of straw on top. They will ripen in there without the sun. When the sun shines on tomatoes after cold nights it causes them to rot.

A Recipe for Rest

The most restful thing for a tired brain and overworked nervous system is a brisk, enjoyable walk, or a keen, eager game in the open air, followed by a hundred pages or so of a good novel. You will sleep better, go back to your work next day fresher and better rested, than you would be if you endeavored to crowd your brain with additional information or instruction for practical use in your life work.

A College for Didsbury

The Nazarene people are contemplating establishing a college in Southern Alberta and Didsbury seems the most likely location for various reasons which are patent to all.

The purpose is to make the school as soon as possible and so far as possible industrial, so that boys and girls without means but who desire an education, may be able to work themselves through school.

We intend to advertise this school over all Canada, United States and Great Britain. Didsbury will be one of the best advertised towns in Western Canada.

While this school shall be of a highly religious character, we expect to compete with the best schools of the country in giving as speedily as possible, the following courses:

First—Preparatory classes to all who need them. This department will be of special value to young men and women who find themselves at 20 or 25 years of age without very much of an education but who do not feel like enduring the humiliation of going to public school and being in the same classes with boys and girls 15 or 15 years younger than themselves.

Second—A full high school course will be given, including teachers' course of 1st, 2nd and 3rd grade and matriculation to the University with Latin, Greek, French and German languages.

Third—A school of music with competent instructors in vocal and instrumental.

Fourth—A commercial school, giving both short and long courses.

Fifth—A course in agriculture.

Sixth—Should it be determined later on that this college should be of University standing it would be affiliated with the Provincial University. The result would be that students would receive the same degrees as those of any other college affiliated with the Provincial University.

Some characteristics of a college of this kind are:

1. All trustees and teachers must be highly religious people of unimpeachable moral character.
2. One half hour each day is devoted to religious exercises, consisting generally of an exposition of a passage from the Bible by one of the teachers, sacred songs and prayer.

3. Every class is opened by prayer, whether it be Latin, geometry, history, music or any other study.

4. Intoxicating liquors, tobacco and profanity strictly prohibited on the college grounds.

5. Rough mass games are not permitted, but only such recreations as are necessary for the physical development of the students.

6. The Bible is a text book and every student must study the book of books.

The most essential part of this school will be the Bible school department. It must meet with a force from all who hold to the old book as a rule of life and conduct. It will be found the very thing for men and women who want to become better acquainted with the word of God.

English theological and Greek theological courses will be given for those who intend to be preachers and evangelists.

In order to build and equip one building, which will be the first of a series of buildings, we ought to have $50,000. This we hope to have subscribed from various sources and donated, before very long. We have confidence in the people of Didsbury and believe that if they undertake to help establish a good college in their midst they will perform what they undertake. We are thankful for the manifest good will and words already spoken as we have from time to time mentioned the subject. Let every one think their best, talk their best and help their best and we can guarantee a college of which Didsbury will be proud.

Council Meeting

A regular meeting of the city council was held on Monday evening, Aug. 21st, members present being Mayor Atkins and Couns. St. Clair, Shantz, Oliver and Moyer.

Mr. Peter Wilson was present to consult with council regarding the drainage of water from the town upon his property.

Shantz Oliver—That the civic works committee investigate and bring in a report at the next meeting upon the possibilities of draining the water through Mr. P. Wilson's property. Carried.

Mr. M. Welser was present and presented a petition signed by all the rate payers south of the mill requesting the continuation of a sidewalk on Detwiler street. The matter was left in the hands of Mr. St. Clair with the sanction of the council to build same if funds would permit.

The meeting then adjourned.

A Bad Accident

Quite a serious accident occurred near Neepawa on Monday last to Peter Liesener, Jr., resulting in the breaking of a shoulder bone. He was driving with a horse and buggy by a pasture where the horse had been kept. Seeing the other horses in the pasture, Mr. Liesener's horse became fractious, breaking the fillet out of the buggy, so Mr. Liesener took the horse by the bridle to hold him, the horse throwing him to the ground with the serious results before mentioned.
